So the house refused to adopt the said substitute.

The question then recurred on concurring in the report of the minority, on being put, it was Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on concurring in the report from the majority of the said committee.

Mr. Biser moved to amend said report by adding thereto the following:

Therefore resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the resolution No. 84, of December session 1838, be and the same is hereby rescinded and annulled, and all the authority and discretions that were thereby given or intended to be thereby given to the Treasurer of the Western Shore, are hereby absolutely revoked, and that no further payment be made on the part of the State at any time hereafter, towards the stock of the said Eastern Shore Rail Road Company;

Which was read.

Before the question was put—

Mr. Tuck moved to amend the said amendment by adding thereto the following:

And whereas, M. Duval has preferred a claim to this General Assembly for damages sustained as a contractor on the Eastern Shore Rail Road, which this State may be called on to pay, if the aforementioned resolution of last session be rescinded,—Therefore,

Resolved, That this legislature does not recognize any claim against the State, for or on account of any contract with said company; but this legislature expresses no opinion as to M. Duval's rights as against said company.

Which was read.

Mr. Le Grand moved the previous question;

And on the same being put—

On motion of Mr. Martin,

The yeas and nays were required and appear as follows:
